PLAINTIFF'S SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT & JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff JONATHAN B. AFLATOUNI (“Aflatouni” or “Plaintiff”) files this Original Complaint against Defendant LIBERTY INSURANCE CORPORATION (“Liberty”) (“Defendant”) and would respectfully show the following:

Parties

1. Mr. Aflatouni is a natural person residing in the State of Texas.
2. Upon information and belief, Liberty is a foreign fire and casualty insurance company engaged in the business of insurance in Texas, operating for the purpose of accumulating monetary profit. Liberty regularly conducts the business of insurance in a systematic and continuous manner in the State of Texas. Liberty may be served with process by serving Corporation Service Company, 211 East 7th Street, Suite 620, Austin, Texas 78701-3218.

Venue & Jurisdiction

3. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a) because there is complete diversity of citizenship between Plaintiff and Defendant and the amount in controversy exceeds the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000.00), exclusive of interests and costs.

4. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) because this actions concern real properties located in Denton and Tarrant Counties, Texas, and all or a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claims described herein occurred in Denton County. In particular, the insurance policies at issue and of which Plaintiff is a beneficiary was to be performed in Denton County and Tarrant County, Texas and the losses under the policies (including payments to be made to Plaintiff under the policy) were required to be made in Denton County, Texas. Further, investigation, including communications to and from Defendant and Plaintiff (including telephone calls, mailings, and other communications to Plaintiff) occurred in Denton and Tarrant Counties, Texas.

Factual Background

5. On or before March 23, 2016, Plaintiff entered into a contract with Liberty whereby Liberty would provide property insurance for the residence at 8500 Doral Court, Flower Mound, Texas 75022 (the “Doral Property”) in exchange for the timely payment of premiums under Policy No. H37-298-084496-70 (the “Doral Policy”). The Policy was sold by Liberty to Mr. Aflatouni as the insured under the Policy and provides coverage for the Property resulting from the hail storm.

6. On or before March 23, 2016, Plaintiff entered into a contract with Liberty whereby Liberty would provide property insurance for the residence at 3405 Windsor Ct., Colleyville, Texas 76034 (the “Windsor Property”) (collectively “Properties”) in exchange for the timely payment of premiums under Policy No. H37-298-084497-70 (the “Windsor Policy”) (collectively “Policies”). The Policy was sold by Liberty to Mr. Aflatouni as the insured under the Policy and provides coverage for the Property resulting from the hail storm.

7. On or about March 23, 2016, the Properties were substantially damaged by a severe hail storm that struck Denton and Tarrant Counties. As a result, the roofs of the Properties was substantially damaged. Immediately upon discovering the damages, Plaintiff filed insurance claims under the Policies with Liberty for damages to the Properties caused by the hail storm. Plaintiff asked that the cost of repairs be covered pursuant to the Policies.

8. Liberty is the insurer on the properties. Liberty assigned adjusters, consultants, and agents to Plaintiff's files that were inadequate and improperly trained. Specifically, Liberty assigned the claim to Douglas McKenzie as the adjuster with decision-making authority over Mr. Aflatouni's Doral Property claim. McKenzie was charged with the responsibility of adjusting the claim and assessing damages under the Policy. McKenzie was improperly trained for this type of claim. McKenzie performed a haphazard inspection of the Doral Property on April 16, 2016 and prepared an estimate of damages to the structure which grossly undervalued and ignored obvious damages to the Doral Property. Liberty relied on McKenzie's incomplete and inadequate investigation in making coverage decisions under the Doral Policy and deciding what amounts to pay. McKenzie performed an unreasonable and inadequate investigation and ignored damages to the Doral Property. Further, McKenzie failed to engage appropriate consultants to evaluate the damages. McKenzie performed an incomplete investigation and, as a result, Mr. Aflatouni was not paid for all the damages under the Doral Policy.

9. Liberty is the insurer on the properties. Liberty assigned adjusters, consultants, and agents to Plaintiff's files that were inadequate and improperly trained. Specifically, Liberty assigned the claim to an unknown adjuster as the individual with decision-making authority over Mr. Aflatouni's Windsor Property claim. The adjuster was charged with the responsibility of adjusting the claim and assessing damages under the Policy. The adjuster was improperly trained for this type of claim. The adjuster performed a haphazard inspection of the Windsor Property. Liberty relied on the adjuster's incomplete and inadequate investigation in making coverage decisions under the Windsor Policy and deciding what amounts, if any, to pay. The adjuster performed an unreasonable and inadequate investigation and ignored damages to the Windsor Property. Further, the adjuster failed to engage appropriate consultants to evaluate the damages. The adjuster performed an incomplete investigation and, as a result, Mr. Aflatouni was not paid for all the damages under the Windsor Policy.

10. McKenzie and the unknown adjuster conducted an unreasonable and inadequate investigation and refused to acknowledge obvious damage to the structure. They also grossly undervalued what damage they did accept. Liberty's coverage decisions relied on these adjusters' inadequate investigation and representations. Liberty and these adjusters represented to Mr. Aflatouni that certain damages were not covered under the Policies when in fact they were. On April 20, 2016, Defendant denied what was due and owed under the Doral Policy. To this day, Defendant have refused to pay the remaining amounts. Mr. Aflatouni has never received correspondence regarding the decision on the Windsor Property.

11. Liberty and these adjusters denied and delayed Mr. Aflatouni's claims for damages. Furthermore, Defendant have underestimated damages during their investigation. Defendant have chosen to continue to deny and delay timely payment of the damages. As a result, Mr. Aflatouni has not been fully paid under the Policies provided by Liberty since the event.

12. As a result of Defendant' acts and/or omissions, Mr. Aflatouni was required to retain an attorney to prosecute its claims for insurance benefits.

13. Unfortunately, Defendant have delayed payment for Mr. Aflatouni's necessary and covered property repairs and damages under its own insurance policies. Given the repeated delays of payment, Mr. Aflatouni has been subjected to significant economic impact, worry, distress, and continuing economic and physical damage. In addition, Mr. Aflatouni has suffered financial harm and damage as a result of Defendant' denials and repeated delays. The significant effect of Defendant' wrongful and unjustified delays, however, is still uncompensated.
